SOVIET TROOPS ARE WAVERING

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Moscow, March 7.—The bayonets of the Red army were still upholding the authority of the Russian Soviet against the anti-Bolshevik insurrection, but the loyalty of the troops was reported to be wavering, according to an exchange of telegrams from Helsinki today.
A dispatch quoted a Finnish courier as having arrived from Petrograd, as follows:
"The loyalty of the troops is wavering. In Moscow, Red in armored cars are patrolling the streets and are using artillery against the striking workers."
All the local Soviet officials at Helsinki were killed by rebels.
"Comrades under General Dutov are in the Orenburg district of the Volga mountains, trying to cut off Bolshevik communication with Turkestan," said a Riga despatch to the Daily Express.
The last food train from Siberia came through two weeks ago.
The Red garrison at Pskov mutinied on Sunday. The Red guards and workers defeated the special command troops that had been sent against them. They arrested and killed all the local commissaries and other Bolshevik officials.
"The fortress of Kronstadt undoubtedly had an important part in the counter-revolution. The insurgents there were led by Captain Bragher, formerly of the Imperial navy."
The Bolsheviks are building trenches and mounting artillery on the coast. In the region of Orsk, four battleships bombarded Bolshevik batteries, silencing four of them.

LENINE BELITTLES INTERNAL TROUBLE

(Copyright, 1921, International News Service.)
By Telegram to The Freeman.
Moscow, March 3, via Reval, March 5, via Berlin, March 6.—Nikolai Lenin, in a speech to the Moscow Soviet today upon the disorders which have been reported from various quarters, discounted them, and attributed them to the shortage of fuel.
"In the recent demonstrations at Petrograd and Moscow there was actually only one provocative shot fired which killed a Communist," said Lenin.
"These are unfortunate days, but we have lived through even far greater difficulties in the past. We expect to beat him finally in the spring."
Lenin furnished statistics showing that the food ration had dropped from 200 wagons every five days to 10, but he said that the situation was well in hand.
It is reported that General Kerensky, of the Imperial Czarist regime, with a few hundred followers, is causing some disturbances at Kronstadt. However, no definite reports have come from there about counter-revolutionary movements.

LIMERICK MAYOR IS MURDERED

A Former Mayor Also Shot to Death in His Home by Armed Workers—One Wife Killed, Others Seriously Hurt—Both Men Shot in Their Homes.
By Telegram to The Freeman.
Dublin, March 7.—George Clancy, mayor of Limerick, and Chancellor O'Callaghan, former mayor of Limerick, were both shot to death in their homes at Limerick today.
Clancy was attacked in his bed at 10:30 by a band of armed workers who had broken into his home. He was badly wounded trying to defend himself. He died later.
O'Callaghan, the military career, it was two hours before a physician could reach the Clancy home.
The killings were similar to the murder of Lord Mayor Thomas MacCarthy at Cork, one year ago. Both Clancy and O'Callaghan were Sinn Féin men, as was MacCarthy. Both were dragged from their homes by the attackers. Clancy was shot in the back of the head before his head was cut off. One of the bodies intended for the mayor was Clancy.
Clancy was the fourth mayor to be murdered in Ireland. Sinn Féin men had shot and at Limerick attacked the Clancy home.
O'Callaghan was a wealthy manufacturer. His wife, Mrs. O'Callaghan, was shot in the back of the head and was badly hurt. The bodies of both Clancy and O'Callaghan were carried off to the morgue.
A third murder was reported from Limerick. The victim was a young man named O'Donovan. He was shot in the back of the head and died.

THIS WEEK IN THE LEGISLATURE

Prohibition Enforcement Bill To Pass—Transit Proposal Changes Determined—Important Hearings Scheduled—Al. Smith To Plead.
By Telegram to The Freeman.
Albany, March 7.—The legislature will put New York state on record this week, as an aide to the federal government in enforcing prohibition.
Bills pending enactment and embodying Governor Miller's demands that state police officers assist prohibition agents are in final form for passage. Assembly Republicans will be whipped into line at a conference on the measures tonight. This will be the second conference on prohibition in the house. The first showed but 70 votes for the bills. Speaker Machold and the leaders may, however, that the absence of some majority members alone was responsible for the insufficiency of voting strength. They are confident the bills will be passed this week.
Senate approval is assured. A conference of the senate Republicans last week netted 28 votes for the enforcement bill.
Another of the measures, constituting a part of the governor's legislative program, may reach the executive this week through passage in both houses of the bill, reorganizing the state tax department and centralizing tax collection agencies of the state. Caucus action on this measure has assured its passage. The bill would have been sent to the governor last week except for the necessity of making a few minor amendments. The measure is now in form for passage.
Week end conferences have about determined all the changes to be made in the governor's transit proposal. Committees of both houses, handling the legislation, will confer tomorrow when a definite stand will be taken on proposed changes in the bill. Leaders declared possible that the measure may be reported out of committee this week and be placed on the calendar for final action next week.
Majority Leader Lusk of the senate is authority for the statement that one of the proposed amendments which will be incorporated in the bill, will be the change, taking away every vestige of authority giving the proposed transit commission in the original bill to grant fare increases, temporary or permanent, until the unified system of transit, which the commission is charged with framing, has been adopted.
Sponsors of the bill believe that inclusion of this amendment will insure to a great extent the opposition of New York city authorities to enactment of the bill. They claim that their opposition was directed chiefly to provisions in the measure which were construed by them as sanctioning granting of increased fare.
Organized labor will be given another chance tomorrow to reiterate their opposition to the bill reorganizing the state industrial commission and redefining the labor laws. The bill is now before the governor. He will give a hearing at noon tomorrow before signing it.
Former Governor Alfred E. Smith is slated to speak in behalf of the four proposed constitutional amendments, reorganizing and consolidating state governmental agencies, at a hearing tomorrow. With George W. Wickersham, formerly United States attorney general, Governor Smith will speak for the State Association.
The governor has also set a hearing on daylight saving repeal for Thursday at noon.
On Wednesday the assembly printing committee will give a hearing on the bill abolishing the state printing board and cutting publishing of the session laws in newspapers. The governor and legislative leaders estimate that this measure will save the state over $500,000 a year.

WARREN'S GIANT TALKING MACHINE

Will Be a Feature at the Automobile Show—If You Hear Strange Noises in the Armory It Will Not Mean War, But a Rehearsal for the Show.
Everybody connected with the automobile trade is working to make the Kingston Automobile Show, March 31, April 1 and 2, a success and well worth visiting. Alderman Warren has offered an additional attraction that will also draw the attention of the show, even to a blind man. The alderman has recently acquired an electrically driven phonograph that has the voice of a giant and offered to loan it for the show. It will be a feature of the show. The volume of sound it produces is so great that when it was tried in Keeney's Theater it had to be toned down to one-half its power in order that it might not deafen the audience.
This type of machine that was dreamed of when Edison made the first phonograph many years ago but has never been built until recently it can make as much noise as a thunder storm and a boiler factory working in combination, but will make it in more melodious tones.
Of course, the great problem is where to place it in the armory and this will be solved by trying it out in various positions. Mr. Warren and Mr. Brown having agreed to move it around until the best place is found. So if passerby hear loud tones rolling out from the armory some fine day, they need not be alarmed by the thought that war has been declared and Captain Fowler is drilling the troops—it will only be the electric shouter undergoing a try-out.

REV. MR. FULLER HAS RESIGNED

Pastor of the Wurtz Street Baptist Church to Take Effect July 1—He Health Reasons of Resignation—This Church His First Charge.
Sunday morning the Rev. A. K. Fuller, pastor of the Wurtz Street Baptist Church, announced his resignation of the pastorate of the church to take effect July 1 of this year. Mr. Fuller's resignation is due to ill health, and his announcement was received with regret by the members of his congregation.
It was forty years ago when Mr. Fuller, then a divinity student at the seminary, came to Kingston and acted as a supply for the church, and he made such a deep impression upon the members of the congregation that they extended him a call to the pastorate of the church which he accepted the following year when he graduated. As Mr. Fuller humorously expressed it, "I graduated one day, was married the next, and settled in Kingston the next week."
He served the church here for seven years, leaving to accept the pastorate of a church at Sioux Falls, South Dakota, where he served for two years, and then went to the First Baptist Church in Newburgh, where he served as pastor for fifteen years. From Newburgh he was called to Scranton, Pa., where he served about six years.
Then, eight years ago this July, and twenty-four years after his first pastorate here, he received a call from the Wurtz Street Baptist Church to become its pastor, which he accepted and has served the church efficiently ever since.
Mr. Fuller during the years that he has been a resident of this city has endeared himself not only to the members of his own congregation but the city at large, and his work as pastor has had a decided influence for good in the religious life of the city.
Mr. Fuller has not been enjoying the best of health for some time past which is the reason for his decision to resign as pastor of the church. He has not made any plans for the future as yet, but any plans he may make will, of course, depend upon the condition of his health.
Mr. Fuller's letter of resignation which he read to the congregation was as follows:
"It is with great reluctance that I read to you, this morning, the communication I hold in my hand, and which I feel impelled at this time to present.
I assure you that it was written only after much thought and prayer. Eight years ago your call to become pastor of the second time, this church reached me in Scranton, Pennsylvania. Four years ago the first call came while I was still a student in the Theological Seminary. To the first invitation I said 'Yes,' and the Lord permitted me to spend several years of happy ministry in Kingston.
I said 'Yes' also to the second invitation, and if we are suffered to work together until next July I shall have rounded out eight years of delightful ministry.
But the time has come now when it seems best to return the commission you gave me eight years ago. You will want to know my reason or reasons for so doing. There is but one reason and this is not because there is any lessening of loyalty on your part or so far as I am aware, any desire on the part of the church for a change in the pastorate.
My only reason for laying down the work now is the condition of my health. My strength does not seem to be sufficient to permit me to do the work which I feel needs to be done at present for the best interests of the church, and it is only because this church here has not required the work demanded on some fields, that I have been able to continue as long as I have.
I am glad to realize that in spite of a somewhat broken service and under, not entirely favorable conditions, those years of ministry among you have not been altogether without the Lord's blessing.
One of the happiest days of my life was that Sunday, during the first pastorate, when the Lord permitted me to baptize forty-five candidates and receive them into the fellowship of this church, and on one Lord's Day, during these last years, as you may remember, I had the privilege of baptizing twenty.
A privilege has also been craved me while here that few ministers have experienced in that I have been permitted to marry and baptize in the pastorate those whose fathers and mothers I baptized and married in the first pastorate. Such experiences make heart use that can not easily be proved.
The most of those who worshiped here during the early ministry have, of course, gone to the home above or returned to other earthly cities and churches but a surprisingly large number still remain. There are 26 names now on the church roll who were members when I closed my first pastorate 32 years ago. In both those periods of minister the Lord has permitted me to dwell together in unity and it is a great source of satisfaction to me, as I am sure it is to you, that during all these years an unbroken service has marked our fellowship.
You have been a patient and far-reaching congregation and as pastor could desire a more loyal or responsive people. The more knowledge of the church to myself and family will never be forgotten, and the memory of my ministry will cherish the remembrance years of my life, and encourage ministers to you in the future, the prayer of my heart is, that you may remain united, faithful and loyal to Jesus Christ the great head of the church. With much love I present to you my resignation as pastor of the church, and may the Holy Spirit be with you and guide you all. With the day of heart is, that you may remain united, faithful and loyal to Jesus Christ the great head of the church."

CHRISTIANITY IN NO DANGER

The Rev. John Nicholas, D. D., of the Reformed Dutch Church of Woodstock, who occupied the pulpit of the First Dutch Church on Sunday is not one of those clergymen who have lost faith in Christianity because of the decrease in attendance at some of the churches. On the contrary, he said to his congregation to whom he preached upon the incident of the Burning Bush as described in Exodus, that Christianity had passed through many periods of apparent decay only to emerge stronger and more militant than ever. Dominie Nicholas sees no conflict between science and religion. Upon the contrary, he thinks they are in accord and that Jesus Christ was the greatest evolutionist the world has produced in that constantly he preached that the material preceded the spiritual. The dominie is a man of imposing presence and impressive delivery.

PANAMA WILL REJECT U.S. AWARD

Republic Declines Its Acceptance of Loubet Plaque On Disputed Territory And Suggests League Or Three-Nation Arbitration.
By Telegram to The Freeman.
Bailbo, Panama Canal Zone, March 7.—President Porras of Panama, announced that he would refer Secretary of State Hughes's warning note on the Panama-Costa Rica clash to the Panamanian National Assembly this afternoon.
The president said he would abide by any declaration reached by the National Assembly. He expressed regret that Secretary of State Hughes made Chief Justice White's territorial award the basis of mediation, pointing out that Panama had rejected the White decision seven years ago.
It was understood that the Panamanian assembly would reject the offer of mediation on the ground that the constitution of the republic recognized only the Loubet award and not the award of Chief Justice White.
Quantities of arms and ammunition are being received in Panama and that republic will soon have about 500 well-equipped soldiers at the Sinoala river, the scene of the disputed territory. There were indications that the Panamanians might attack when their forces were strengthened.
President Porras said that Panama would accept any arbitration on the basis of the Loubet award, but would continue to reject mediation along the lines of the White award. He suggested that the League of Nations use its offices to end the dispute or that the United States and two South American powers join in bringing about an understanding between Panama and Costa Rica.

COUNTER PROPOSALS REJECTED; PENALTIES TO GO INTO EFFECT

Negotiations With Germans Deadlocked, Announces Lloyd-George and Force Will Be Used to Obtain Reparations.
By Telegram to The Freeman.
London, March 7.—Premier Lloyd-George announced this afternoon that the indemnity conference reconvened that the Allies, being dissatisfied with the counter proposals made so far by the Germans had decided to put the penalties into effect at once to compel German obedience to the Allied reparations decisions.
"I regret to state on behalf of the Allies that not only are the German proposals inadequate, but despite the interval since our last meeting there is not sufficient advance in the negotiations to justify postponing the sanctions (penalties) any longer," said the British premier.

ERIE WRONG, SAYS WAGE BOARD

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Chicago, March 7.—The Erie railroad violated the Cummins-Esch railroad law under which the roads were returned to private ownership when it announced a decrease in wages and an increase in the hours of labor of its employees, the United States railway labor board held in a decision announced here today.
The decision is expected to have a moral if not legal effect on the conferences set for tomorrow between numerous eastern railroads and their maintenance of way employees. Legally, it is admitted, however, the board's decision is practically worthless for although finding the Erie has ignored its decisions and violated the transportation act, it is without authority to enforce any penalty.
The Erie's case first became before the board early in February when the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers and the American Train Dispatchers' Association filed a protest against retrenchment of February 1 which cut the wages of unskilled labor 27 per cent and deducted one day's pay a week from the salaries of all employees paid on a monthly basis. The board ordered a hearing in a ruling issued February 12, meanwhile directing the Erie to confer with its employees and to make no change in rates or pay or working conditions except by an agreement with employees.
When the case was heard February 23, however, the employees charged violation of the transportation act, in the roads setting aside decision No. 2 of the board, which was the wage award of July 7, 1920. Today's decision cites six specifications of the transportation act by the Erie and adds that "this decision is not to be construed as a finding that the carrier has not violated decision number 2 in other respects."

The Coterie.

An interesting meeting of the Coterie was held on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ellis, the program for the day being devoted to "The City Beautiful." Miss Haber had the first paper for the day on "Its Approaches, Parks and Memorials." The second paper on "City Planning and Planting" was by Mrs. Flemming and both were full of interest and information. The Coterie will entertain the Federation women at their open meeting which will be held on March 19th, in the chapel of the Band of Protestant Church. Dr. George Shattuck, formerly a member of the Vassar College faculty of Poughkeepsie, and who has been spending some time in Africa in the interest of a noted film concern, and has brought back with him many curios, costumes, etc., will be the speaker for the afternoon. Miss Las Kamp will also add to the enjoyment of the occasion by singing. ## Kunst-Kaplan.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Kaplan on No. 79 Crown street was the scene on Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock of an impressive and beautiful wedding when Jeanette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kaplan, became the wife of Isaac K. Kunst of this city. The home was elaborately decorated with spring flowers, tulips, daffodils, carnations and roses, and a massing of palms and evergreens forming the background for the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. J. Kaplowitz, pastor of Agudas Achaim synagogue of this city. The bride was dressed in a hand embroidered tulle gown, wedding gown of white tulle with a train and wearing a French coronet bouquet. Music, both before and during the ceremony, was furnished by Muller's orchestra. After the ceremony and congratulations, a reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Kunst, and an elaborate wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride. There were many beautiful as well as useful and costly wedding gifts. During the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Kunst left on an extended wedding trip, most of which will be spent in visiting points of interest in Pennsylvania, and on their return they will make their new home at 16 West Chester street. The groom is a well-known downtown business man while the bride is one of Kingston's popular daughters. Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Kovansky of Westchester; M. Pionerman and family of Jersey City; Max Kaplan of Albany, and L. Wolfman of New York city. The best wishes of a wide circle of friends will attend the newly wedded young people for a long and happy married life.

FAMOUS OLD CITY

Geneva Figures Prominently in Pages of History.

Records Show Brave Fight for Independence Long Maintained Against Powerful, Unscrupulous Neighbors.

Geneva, the seat of the League of Nations, witnessed some severe fighting in the days when the duke of Savoy sought to destroy its independence with the aid of a contingent of Spanish troops.

These mercenaries tried to rush the defenses at dead of night, but though some of them managed to get into Geneva, not one of them managed to get out again. Those who were not killed in action were afterward beheaded.

They still preserve at Geneva scaling ladders captured from the Spaniards on that memorable night, together with the caldron out of which a Geneva housewife, who had risen early to prepare her husband's breakfast, poured a deluge of scalding soup on to the heads of the enemy troops.

Another relic preserved at Geneva recalls the little band of exiles who worked together there at the translation of the Scriptures, known as the Geneva Bible.

On the eve of their departure for England they went in a body to the city fathers, who gave them, as the records show, "honorable license to depart, together with a testimonial of the satisfaction we have had in them, and an exhortation to act in their turn toward foreigners as we have acted toward them." Then they all wrote their signatures in the "Livres des Anglais," or Book of the English, which is carefully treasured in the Geneva archives.

Though Geneva for some hundreds of years has been a sovereign republic, much of the architectural beauty of the modern town is directly due to the generosity of a one-time reigning prince, Charles II, duke of Brunswick-Wolfenbuttel.

The duke, who was born in 1597, succeeded at an early age to the throne, and governed so arbitrarily and cruelly that his subjects appealed to the German diet, which, after some negotiation deposed him and placed his younger brother on the throne. After this Duke Charles, who was very wealthy, wandered about Europe, making Paris his headquarters. On the outbreak of the Franco-Prussian war, in 1870, he finally settled at Geneva, where he died in 1873.

He had been an exile from his own land for more than thirty years, and it he ever had had any affection for it, it had perished during that time; so he constituted the city of Geneva his heir. His will was disputed by his brother and successor, Duke William, who demanded the family jewels and other treasure.

Before the case came into the courts the duke agreed to compromise, and the city came in for a legacy worth about four million dollars. This sum, or a considerable portion of it, has been spent in beautifying the town, building the quays and the elaborate Brunswick monument.

Mark Twain as a Typist.

Mark Twain appears to have been the first distinguished author to purchase a typewriter, and a letter typed by him to W. D. Howells on December 9, 1874—the very day the machine reached him—is still extant.

"I don't know," he tells him, "whether I am going to make this typewriting machine go or not; that last word was intended for a set; but I guess I shall make some sort of a success of it before I run it very long. I am so thick-fingered that I miss the keys. You needn't answer this. I am only practicing to get three—another slip-up there; only practicing to get the hang of the thing. I notice I miss fire—get in a good many unnecessary letters and punctuation marks. I am simply using you for a target to bang at. Blame my cats, but this thing requires a genius in order to work it just right."

Professors Forced to Build.

Switzerland has forced a new use for war profits. The Swiss who reaped an excess profit during the war can get an abatement of taxes if he will invest his surplus in residential housing under official regulation. The regulation guards against unsightly and insanitary buildings. It also restricts rentals to yield only a fair return on the investment. If the war profiteer does not care to put his easy money into this useful channel of public service at a fair return, the state takes a large part of it from him and itself subsidizes the building of houses.

Selling Human Bones.

The keeper of a public cemetery of a small Bohemian town near Prague excavated the older parts of the graveyard, and sold all the old bones he could find for industrial purposes, as he found that certain manufacturers would give for human bones than for those of animals. He had been earning money in this way for several years before he was detected and suspended from the post.

Overused Highways.

The highways of the country are being used to a greater extent than ever before. The larger figures show the total number of cars registered in this country last year to be 7,285,000, including motorcycles and trucks. This is a 20 per cent increase over the previous year.

Wayne B. Wheeler of the Anti-Saloon league said in San Francisco: "I think we're unjust to hotel men as a rule. We are too ready to accuse them of robbery. As a matter of fact, they are a very fine lot."

"I once knew an engineer who was traveling in Nevada. He had a good deal of money with him, and one night he put up at a very primitive hotel in the wilds. The landlord of this hotel looked like a brigand and the engineer could hardly sleep for fear."

"Nothing, however, happened, and the next morning he set off with a relieved heart. The mountain trail was a lonely one, and on toward noon, in a wild and desolate spot, three desperadoes fell on him, emptied his val-

PAY OF TROLLEYS IN THE BALANCE

Judge Hasbrouck Means Arguments and Resolves Decision on Application For Order Restraining Town Officials From Selling Cars or Interfering With Operation.

The recent seizure of two trolley cars by officials of the town of Lloyd for unpaid taxes of 1929 by the New Paltz, Highland and Poughkeepsie Traction Company resulted in application to Judge Hasbrouck at the regular special term of the supreme court at the court house here Saturday for an order restraining the town officials from selling the cars or from otherwise interfering with the operation of the roads. The order directing Albert H. Martin as tax collector to show cause why the injunction should not be issued was granted by Judge Hasbrouck the day after the cars had been changed to the tracks, and at that time Judge Hasbrouck ordered that the cars should be released and the road permitted to continue in operation.

Mayor Canfield, who appeared for the trolley company, called Judge Hasbrouck's attention to the fact that last year was the first in a number of years that the town had made only one assessment against the company, the town having made a double assessment each year prior to that time since 1913. Because it had been assessed double each year the company had refused to pay the tax until it was determined whether the company should be legally assessed for its special franchise or for real estate. The company each year had instituted certiorari proceedings all of which are pending before Howard Chipp, as referee. Last year the town had placed only one assessment on the assessment roll against the company, which was for the special franchise, but the company contended that because it owned the right of way over which it operated it should be taxed for real estate and not for special franchise. In one year, said Mayor Canfield, the assessment against the company had been quadrupled and it was now assessed at 200 per cent of the value of the road. Under a special franchise assessment, he contended, the trolley cars could not be seized. The claim made by the town of Lloyd that the cars were personal property was untenable, he said, and under the tax law the property of non-residents could not be seized for non-payment of taxes. The company was a non-resident, he claimed.

Instead of seizing cars which were in the barn, or seizing the cars when they were at the end of the road, so as not to interfere with the operation of the rest of the road, Mayor Canfield said the cars had been chained to the tracks so as to prevent other cars from being run. One car was seized and chained to the track on the shuttle car which operates from the ferry to the highway crossing over the West Shore tracks. The other car had been seized when half way up the hill from Highland Landing and had been chained to the track there so that if other cars were run to the place where the car was chained, passengers would still be compelled to walk the rest of the distance to the ferry or to the railroad station.

"That looks like spite," remarked Judge Hasbrouck.

Andrew Wright Lent, attorney for the town of Lloyd, said it had been necessary to chain the car to the tracks because the crew had refused to run it after it had been seized. He claimed the company is a resident of every town in which it operates and its property is subject to seizure the same as the property of every other resident, and that if the collector did not use every effort to collect the tax due, by seizure and sale of personal property, the county treasurer could hold him liable for the amount of the unpaid tax, and it was the treasurer's duty to do so. The cars, he contended, could not be classified as real estate but were simply personal property.

Judge Hasbrouck inquired about the assessment against the company in the town of Lloyd, which he was told was $22,500.

"Isn't that ridiculous?" he inquired. "Why, you can't sell that road or even give it away. That is the condition of most trolley roads, and a condition which the governor's transit program is intended to remedy."

Mr. Lent said that the road represented an investment of only $24,000 to the present owner, who had bought it at foreclosure sale, but it was bonded for $100,000 and paid $4,000 interest on bonds annually.

MAKE SURE YOUR BLOOD IS RICH AND RAPIDLY FIGHTING TOXINS

Take Gude's Pepto-Mangan Now

If You Tire Easily and Feel Run Down, You Need the Best Blood Tonic You Can Get, Which is Gude's Pepto-Mangan

All over the United States the health of the people is guarded carefully by Boards of Health. Everything is being done with untiring effort, to prevent the spread of infectious diseases. And yet with all that care and watchfulness a disease sometimes breaks out in a family, and spreads from home to home. One can never tell when an epidemic will break out.

There is one safeguard that is preached by all physicians. That is to keep in good physical condition—to keep vigorous and in good health. Gude's Pepto-Mangan builds up the blood by increasing the number of red corpuscles. That is what makes blood rich and red. When your blood has plenty of red corpuscles, it is able to fight disease germs and carry them off.

If you do not feel right (and you know better than anyone else about that) start today and take Gude's Pepto-Mangan. Keep on taking it for a while and notice how much better you feel.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is put up in both liquid and tablet form and is sold by druggists everywhere. The liquid and tablets have exactly the same medicinal value. Buy whichever you prefer and be sure it is genuine "Gude's Pepto-Mangan." The name "Gude's" is on the package.—Advertisement besides paying the president from $7,500 to $10,000 a year salary.

County Attorney John W. Eckert, who appeared of counsel for the town of Lloyd, also argued that the cars were personal property and could be seized. No matter what had taken place in other years, he said, there was only one assessment against the company for 1929, and the cars had been seized for the unpaid taxes for that year. There were nineteen various proceedings which had been referred to Mr. Chipp to hear and determine, including an equity action which covered the certiorari proceedings of each year.

Mayor Canfield, in reply, said the suggestion that a general equity action be brought by the company had come from one of the counsel who had subsequently opposed the matter before Judge Nichols and had taken an appeal to the appellate division from Judge Nichols' order. The trolley company was ready to proceed with the trial of that action, which had been suggested, as stated, when it was found that certain questions could not be determined in the other proceedings which were before Mr. Chipp. The company was ready to fix a date for the early trial of that action and to proceed with it.

Mr. Lent said he desired to take exception to the statement in regard to the suggestion of the equity action and disclaimed that any of the town officials of the town of Lloyd ever had suggested it.

Judge Hasbrouck reserved decision.

Foreign prices are really made of silver. The pure silver is mixed with copper and brass. In a few years the mixture runs to a heat of three times the boiling point of water. When it has cooled the substance is mixed in known quantities. Many things besides foreign prices are made from silver, such as coins, buttons and buttons. It is found in small quantities in some rocks and soil. A new method has just been discovered for extracting silver, and this makes such silver much cheaper.

POUGHKEEPSIE 84 KINGSTON 27

The Kingston High School basketball quintet went down to defeat Saturday afternoon before the fast Poughkeepsie High team and Poughkeepsie thereby became the undisputed champions of the Central-Hudson valley. Poughkeepsie started off at a fast clip and soon rolled up a commanding lead which was gradually increased until the final whistle when the score stood 84 to 27. Smith, Hall, Hoag and Rosenthal for Poughkeepsie played a steady point getting game and were responsible for many of the tallies for the down river team. The entire game was clean and the majority of the foul points were due to penalties imposed for technical violations of the rules.

Captain Thompson of the local team with 6 field baskets to his credit was the point getter for the locals. The score:

POUGHKEEPSIE GETS TRACK MEET

Poughkeepsie was Saturday awarded the annual championship track and field meet of the Central Hudson Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association for 1921 at a meeting of the board of directors of the association at the Poughkeepsie High School. The date set for the meet is Saturday, June 11. The field has not been definitely decided upon.

It is expected that five schools will be represented by teams. They are Newburgh Academy, winners of last year's championship; Kingston High School, Millbrook High School, Hudson High School and Poughkeepsie High School.

The card of events will be the same as at the meet in Newburgh on Saturday, May 22, 1920. It will include 100 yard dash, 880 yard relay race, 12 pound shot put, running broad jump and running high jump. There is a possibility that there will also be a 220 yard hurdle race. This event, however, will not score points for the championship trophies and will be optional. It will be run in case two or more schools desire to enter.

The intercollegiate method of scoring will be employed. First place will earn five points, second place will earn three points, third place will earn one point. This will make nine points possible in a single event. It was decided that no more than five contestants could be entered by a school in any one event, and that no contestant could enter more than two events in addition to the relay race.

AWARD VALLEY TITLE TO P. H. S.

The basketball championship of the Central Hudson Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association for 1920-21 was on Saturday officially awarded to the Poughkeepsie High School team by the board of directors at a meeting held that day in the Bridge City. A. W. Bailey of this city, secretary of the association, was instructed to certify the Poughkeepsie team as winner of the league championship, and thereby make the team eligible to compete in the state championship tournament at Syracuse. The Poughkeepsie boys have now won the trophy twice, having but one more winning necessary to give them permanent possession of the silver trophy.

Following the withdrawal of the Hudson High School from the 1921 football season, the board of directors of the association, voted to extend an invitation to Middletown High School to take the place on the schedule made vacant by Hudson.

AN INCENDIARY FIRE

At Nuxtom Products Plant on Field Court Sunday.

Fire, that had every appearance of being of incendiary origin, was discovered Sunday noon at the Nuxtom Products Company plant on Field Court and an alarm was turned in from Box 73 to which the fire department responded. The fire was started from the outside against a window and when the flames reached the scene had crawled up the casing into the second floor of the building occupied by the C. A. Balta factory, but was extinguished without damage to the Balta plant. In the Nuxtom plant the damage, which was confined to the window frame, amounts to about $40.

MATTERS BEFORE SPECIAL TERM

Vicovich Proceedings Halted Pending Outcome of Appeal—Home Encumbered Orange County Cows.

A motion to dismiss the appeal taken by the city of New York from the judgment of Judge Hasbrouck in the suit brought against the city by Frank Vicovich, in which the judge held that Vicovich owns the land on which the gas houses of the city aqueduct are located near Tonawanda, was made before Judge Hasbrouck at Saturday's special term of the supreme court by Frank W. Brooks, attorney for Mr. Vicovich. The motion was made on the ground that the case on appeal had not been settled. The case is on the calendar of the present trial term of court and the only question for determination is the amount of damages sustained by Mr. Vicovich. The motion was opposed by William H. Grogan, counsel for the city, and Judge Hasbrouck reserved decision. Later, on the application of the city, Judge Hasbrouck granted an order staying all proceedings pending the determination of the appeal by the appellate division.

Orange County Cow Case. In the case of George B. Hoornbeek against Daniel B. Ryerson, William L. Leonard and Louis Kullogowski, a motion was made by Clarence A. Hoornbeek, attorney for the plaintiff, to continue a temporary injunction heretofore granted by Judge Rosch restraining the defendants from interfering with the sale of seven cows and two heifers on which the defendant Kullogowski gave a chattel mortgage. The seven cows were specifically described. The defendant Ryerson also holds a chattel mortgage covering sixteen cows and other property, and claims that five of the seven cows claimed by Mr. Hoornbeek are covered by his mortgage. Judge Hasbrouck allowed the plaintiff to amend his complaint and continued the injunction. Ivan Gardner appear for the defendants.

Would Reinstated Rail Bond. In the case of the People against Roscoe H. Sanborn, District Attorney Henry F. Gardner of Sullivan county moved to amend an order heretofore made in regard to minutes of the Sullivan county trial term of court. The minutes of the September, 1919, term of court show that it had been stated no indictment was filed against the defendant and an order had been granted exonerating the bond which he had previously given with the Fidelity and Deposit Company as surety. Subsequently, the surety company returned the collateral which had been deposited with it, on account of the record in the court minutes. Later a bench warrant was issued for Sanborn, who had been indicted for larceny, but he has never been located. The motion was opposed by County Judge Joseph M. Fowler, who appeared for the surety company. Judge Hasbrouck reserved decision.

Other Cases. In the case of L. E. Ragan, Inc., against James Simpson, a motion was made by the defendant to change the place of trial from Columbia county to Putnam county, where the defendant lives. The action is brought to recover a balance claimed to be due for the construction of a house. The defendant claims that all the materials charged for were not furnished and that there were certain defects for which he declines to pay. The defendant had failed to show in his application what testimony would be given by the seven witnesses for whose convenience he asked the change of place of trial, and the motion was denied. Thomas Hill appeared for the defendant and the motion; R. Mowell Herzberg of Hudson appeared for the plaintiff and opposed. Mary A. Steele against Fritz Claus and others. Action to foreclose mortgage on property in Greene county. Order granted appointing Charles T. Coffin of Catskill referee. Percy W. Decker for the plaintiff.

Rosa V. Lane against Peter Lane. Order discharging William G. Birmingham as receiver granted. The receiver appeared in person.

Nellie Kelly and Philip Kelly against Barney Dunn and others. Action in partition. Order for withdrawal of funds deposited with the county treasurer granted. John W. Eckert for the petitioner; DeWitt, Roosa for other interested parties.

Antonio Fandino and Angelo Fandino against Martin Manning. Order changing place of trial from Ulster to Orange county granted. Scott & Speed for the defendant and the motion.

Kingston was unable to follow the pace set by the "Bridge City" team and at the end of the first half the score stood 15 to 8 in favor of the Poughkeepsie team. The score:

This general view shows a part of the huge crowd that heard the new president of the United States deliver his inaugural address from the temporary stand erected in front of the capital. Applause, cheers and words of approval came from the mass writhed in before the stand when President Harding made his points in the declaration of his policies.

Probably Most Common Name. Thousands of years before Christ the Egyptians had a name corresponding to our John and this is reflected in a most popular name. It is more than an effort to choose every country. One of the variations is the Latin Johannes from which is derived the modern German name. Without this last "n" this was widespread in England during the middle ages and from this is derived the modern name (or name John, Hansard, or Hansard, James and Hansard).

Good Thing to Be Born. Persons born between January 1st and February 15th, when the sun is in Aquarius, are broad judges of human nature and can be relied upon to estimate a person's honesty almost at first sight. They are good "snobs," lovers of public entertainment, the stars, film, public conversation, social information easily and from every possible source. They are above all things, and are the funny side of life. Are well adapted to occupations of political nature.
